

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA

IN RE: THE FORMER MARRIAGE OF

CASE NO. 502017DR007262XXXXNB

JENNIFER GUEST,

Petitioner/Former Wife,

FAMILY DIVISION "FH"

And

JASON GUEST,

Respondent/Former Husband.

STIPULATION REGARDING FORMER HUSBAND'S FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS FOR OUT-OF-POCKET EXPENSES FOR MINOR CHILDREN, CORRECTION OF CLERK'S LEDGER, AND CREDIT CARD SETTLEMENT

COMES NOW, the Petitioner/Former Wife, JENNIFER GUEST, and Respondent/Former Husband, JASON GUEST, and stipulate as follows:

1. This is a post-judgment matter involving the parties and their four children; to wit: J.W.G., male, born 2007 (who has reached the age of majority) and the three children who remain minors: B.J.G., male, born 2009; E.M.G., male, born 2009; and L.E.G., male, born 2010.

2. On July 3, 2019, this Court entered its Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage (hereinafter referred to as "Final Judgment") dissolving the parties' marriage.

3. On October 8, 2019, this Court entered its Agreed Order Establishing Child Support, Retroactive Child Support, and Retroactive Alimony and Directions to the Clerk (hereinafter "Support Order") which established current and retroactive child support and retroactive alimony.

4. On March 3, 2020, this Court entered its Agreed Order Regarding Former Husband's Financial Obligations for Make-Up Child Support, Out-of-Pocket Expenses for Minor Children, and Attorney's Fees and Directions to the Clerk (hereinafter "Expense Order") which resolved then-current financial obligations of the Former Husband.

5. Since the entry of the Support Order, the Former Husband's child support, retroactive child support, alimony, and retroactive alimony payments have been automatically deducted from his paychecks and other sources of income.

6. It has come to the attention of the parties that, although the Former Husband has now satisfied his retroactive child support and retroactive alimony obligations, automatic deductions from his income have not been reduced. This has led to overpayments which were applied to the regular, on-going child support and to the retroactive alimony categories on the clerk's ledger (SUP and ALA, respectively).

7. As of July 1, 2025, the overpayment applied to regular child support (SUP) totals $6,366.03 and the overpayment applied to retroactive alimony (ALA) totals $2,262.84.

8. There are also several categories on the ledger showing outstanding balances; to wit: JFE (in the amount of $7.50), DLS (in the amount of $17.50), JDS (in the amount of $1.00), SAT (in the amount of $6.00), DDP (in the amount of $6.00), INT (in the amount of $39.80), DLQ (in the amount of $7.50), SAS (in the amount of $1.00), DDS (in the amount of $1.00), REC (in the amount of $10.00), POS (in the amount of $0.86), JDP (in the amount of $6.00), JFS (in the amount of $17.50), and CFD (in the amount of $47.25). The total outstanding balance for all of these categories is $168.91.

9. Since the entry of the Expense Order, the Former Wife has paid 100% of the out-of-pocket expenses for the children.

10. The parties agree that the total amount of overpayment reflected on the Clerk's ledger may be applied to satisfy the balances of the ledger categories listed in #8 above and the remaining overpayment shall be deemed to satisfy the Former Husband's debt to the Former Wife for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred for the children from the entry of the Expense Order through and including December 31, 2024. The clerk shall then "zero out" any overpayment reflected on the ledger in categories SUP and ALA.

11. During the marriage, the parties incurred marital credit card debt. The Former Wife settled this debt and paid $5,000 on behalf of the Former Husband. The Former Husband agrees to reimburse the Former Wife in the amount of $5,000. This may come from the Former Husband's 401k or from another source. Said payment shall be initiated by the Former Husband as soon as reasonably practicable, not to exceed forty-five (45) days from the execution of this Stipulation.

12. The parties agree that within twenty (20) days of the Former Wife's receipt of the aforementioned $5,000 payment from the Former Husband, the Former Wife's counsel shall submit a proposed order to the Court ratifying this Stipulation and Directing the Clerk to correct the ledger as fully described herein.

13. The parties further agree that within twenty (20) days of the Former Wife's receipt of the aforementioned $5,000 payment from the Former Husband, the Former Wife's counsel shall submit an Amended Income Withholding Order to the Court. This updated Income Withholding Order shall be prepared within ten (10) days of the Former Wife's receipt of the aforementioned $5,000 payment from the Former Husband, and shall be first submitted to the Former Husband for his review and approval.

a. The proposed Amended Income Withholding Order shall reflect current, on-going child support for the parties' remaining three minor children (B.J.G., E.M.G., and L.E.G.) (in the amount of $1,696.00 per month) and shall contain a Child Support Reduction schedule reflecting the date and amount of child support to be paid for the parties' remaining minor child (L.E.G.) once B.J.G. and E.M.G. are no longer subject to child support according to the Final Judgment and the Support Order (in the amount of $830.00 per month).

- b. The proposed Amended Income Withholding Order shall also reflect the Former Husband's current, on-going alimony obligation (of $1,250.00 per month) and shall specify that this obligation shall terminate after May 30, 2026.
- c. As the Former Husband's final alimony payment to the Former Wife is to be paid on August 1, 2025, the Amended Income Withholding Order shall reflect no deductions for alimony.

14. The parties agree to be bound by the terms of this Stipulation and any non-compliance is subject to the jurisdiction of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Court, in and for Palm Beach County, Florida.
